FAQ: Why it is necessary to have a prescription to purchase/sell restraints

Federal Register Volume 61 Number 43, dated March 4, 1996, states that the FDA issued a letter to manufacturers in February 1992 stating that "FDA considered restraints to be prescription devices which must bear a prescription legend as prescribed in 801.109 (21 CFR 801.109) to help ensure appropriate medical intervention in the application and use of restraints."

Example: CAUTION: Federal Law restricts this device to sale by or on the order of a Physician"
